Beltone Boost Max S

Boost your world of sound with super-small, super-powerful hearing aids

Explore now

Boosting your world of sound with meaningful improvements is everything. You don't have to compromise with Beltone Boost™ Max S.

Boost hearing in noise

Thrive in the most challenging listening situations and enjoy better hearing with less effort.

- Experience more natural access to sounds all around you
- Highlight speech and eliminate distractions, without cutting you off from the world
- Enjoy powerful amplification without unwanted whistling noises

Boost power

The smallest rechargeable Super Power hearing aid gives you all-day battery power on one charge* – without compromising on functionality. You can charge Beltone Boost Max S just like your other smart devices.

> Quickly check the power status directly in the Beltone HearMax™ app, and top up the battery anytime with our fast-charging feature.

* Get 28 hours' use on one full charge of battery and 20 hours when streaming 50% of the time

Boost connections

Experience the clearest streamed sound and endless opportunities to connect with Bluetooth® Low Energy (LE) Audio and Auracast™ broadcast audio. Use the Auracast Assistant to select and hear audio streams with a simple tap in the Beltone HearMax app.

MultiConnect

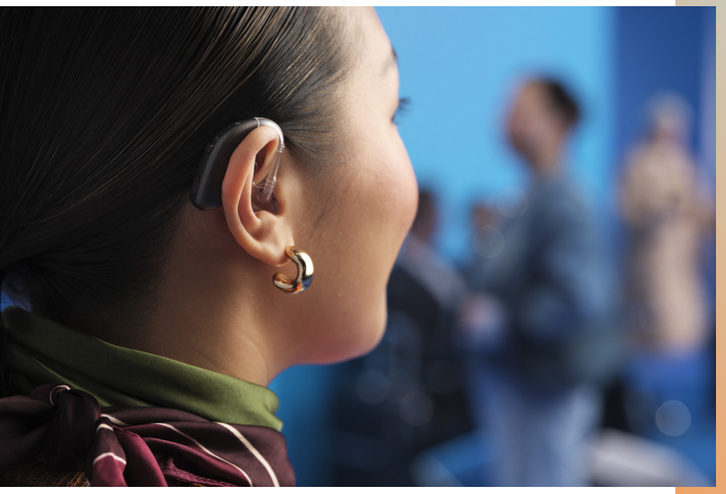

Pair Beltone Boost Max S to two smart devices at once with MultiConnect, for uninterrupted streaming.

 Bluetooth SIG

Boost experiences

When you need some extra help to hear clearly, use the TV-Streamer+ or Multi-Mic+, our wireless streamer solutions that broadcast Auracast.

Boost comfort

The design is crafted to sit beautifully on your ears, to minimise pressure and maximise comfort for all-day wear. There is all-weatherproof nanocoating on every part for reliable protection, and exchangeable mic filters that can be replaced when needed to ensure your hearing aids stay on your ears
